Thomas, we need to do the same thing as we did last semester. Have you enrolled and completed the financial aid process? If so, I can prepare the form we need and e-mail to you today. I will check with those offices to be sure you're ready to finalize. In the future, please use your Friends ID number on your correspondence to us and make sure all enrollment processes are completed before the first day of classes. Your ID number is N00327811 and please feel free to contact me with any questions. Thank you!

I have repeatedly asked to be allowed to do so. I have contacted everyone I have been told to contact.

Yet, I'm continually asked if I have enrolled.

How can I enroll if I've been locked out of the system and I'm continually being asked again and again to contact someone?

I have already completed the financial Aid process for this year and my loans and disbursement dates have already been set.

I'm being told to complete the process before classes start.

I tried to do that for the early Fall Semester.

I tried to do it again today for the late Semester which I am told is just two weeks away.

I do not understand why this is the first time I'm hearing that I need to do more paperwork.

If you can get it to me today, or before I miss yet another deadline, I'll appreciate it.

I sent a letter to the dean asking that my grievence be addressed. I have recieved no reply.
 Since my questions have not been answered, I still do not know why I could not enroll in classes before talking to an Advisor. As a result,
 I do not know if the same thing will not happen again. Also, I have no intentions of going into debt over a degree that was a forced choice, and that I know will be useless to me.

I request that I be withdrawn as a student at this school.

Thomas,

The Dean has received your letter and has been investigating the situation and preparing a response.

In terms of your question regarding why you could not enroll in classes without speaking with an advisor: Every student in the University must speak with an advisor prior to enrollment. During the process the advisor reviews the student selections to confirm all prerequisites are met, that the course is not a duplicate of a transfer course from another institution, and that the proposed schedule meets the academic goals of the student. We also guide the student in selecting the appropriate number of credit hours to maximize their financial aid opportunities. All of these actions are to assist the student in achieving their educational objectives in the most efficient and effective way possible.

All students in the College of Adult and Professional Studies are enrolled as either a PACE student (General Studies or General Business Associates Degrees and generally 0-62 hours) or a Degree Completion Program (DCP) Student with a specific major of study towards a Bachelor's degree. Most of the students in PACE bypass the Associates degree and move directly onto the Bachelor degree, but the student must be identified as PACE or DCP.

I am sorry that you are unhappy with the enrollment arrangement. We hope to begin limited testing in an online enrollment process in the near future, but the students will still be required to visit with an advisor prior to enrollment for the above mentioned reasons.

I will honor your request to be withdrawn and will process your paperwork immediately. Should you wish to be reenrolled in the future, I would be happy to assist you with your advising needs.

Still does not explain why I couldn't add classes like everyone else to ensure my funds.

I was not new. I had already began school and was succeeding. I didn't need or ask for any intervention or disruption of my studies.

The Advisor could have always tried to change my mind later.

Also don't explain why my repeatedly requests to speak to the advisor before the deadline to enroll was ignored.

Also don't explain why I had to change majors when I had passed the summer with an "A" and never asked for any advice about changing anything.

I can understand the Advisor stepping in if I was struggling. I was not.

Also doesn't explain why, when there were only about three choices available to PACE students anyway, I had to call and be forced to accept a major that would have been useless to me--just to get the disbursement.

Which btw, I was never going into debt to take pursue a degree in "sociological imagination." I just wanted my loans so I could continue my education.

Well, I guess you accomplished what you set out to do from the beginning, because I give the whole thing up. You and the government can keep your carrot.

There was no rational reason whatsoever for what happened in my case.

Thomas Couram

And yes, please withdraw me from this school

Thank you

I have repeatedly asked to be allowed to do so. I have contacted everyone I have been told to contact.

Yet, I'm continually asked if I have enrolled.

How can I enroll if I've been locked out of the system and I'm continually being asked again and again to contact someone?

I have already completed the financial Aid process for this year and my loans and disbursement dates have already been set.

I'm being told to complete the process before classes start.

I tried to do that for the early Fall Semester.

I tried to do it again today for the late Semester which I am told is just two weeks away.

I do not understand why this is the first time I'm hearing that I need to do more paperwork.

If you can get it to me today, or before I miss yet another deadline, I'll appreciate it.

I sent a letter to the dean asking that my grievance be addressed. I have recieved no reply.

Since my questions have not been answered, I still do not know why I could not enroll in classes before talking to an Advisor. As a result, I do not know if the same thing will not happen again. Also, I have no intentions of going into debt over a degree that was a forced choice,

I request that I be withdrawn as a student at this school.

Thomas,

The Dean has received your letter and has been investigating the situation and preparing a response.

In terms of your question regarding why you could not enroll in classes without speaking with an advisor: Every student in the University must speak with an advisor prior to enrollment. During the process the advisor reviews the student selections to confirm all prerequisites are met, that the course is not a duplicate of a transfer course from another institution, and that the proposed schedule meets the academic goals of the student. We also guide the student in selecting the appropriate number of credit hours to maximize their financial aid opportunities. All of these actions are to assist the student in achieving their educational objectives in the most efficient and effective way possible.

All students in the College of Adult and Professional Studies are enrolled as either a PACE student (General Studies or General Business Associates Degrees and generally 0-62 hours) or a Degree Completion Program (DCP) Student with a specific major of study towards a Bachelor's degree. Most of the students in PACE bypass the Associates degree and move directly onto the Bachelor degree, but the student must be identified as PACE or DCP.

I am sorry that you are unhappy with the enrollment arrangement. We hope to begin limited testing in an online enrollment process in the near future, but the students will still be required to visit with an advisor prior to enrollment for the above mentioned reasons.

I will honor your request to be withdrawn and will process your paperwork immediately. Should you wish to be reenrolled in the future, I would be happy to assist you with your advising needs.

Still does not explain why I couldn't add classes like everyone else to ensure my funds.

I was not new. I had already began school and was succeeding. I didn't need or ask for any intervention or disruption of my studies.

The Advisor could have always tried to change my mind later.

Also don't explain why my repeatedly requests to speak to the advisor before the deadline to enroll was ignored.

Also don't explain why I had to change majors when I had passed the summer with an "A" and never asked for any advice about changing anything.

I can understand the Advisor stepping in if I was struggling. I was not.

Also doesn't explain why, when there were only about three choices available to PACE students anyway, I had to call and be forced to accept a major that would have been useless to me--just to get the disbursement.

Which btw, I was never going into debt to take pursue a degree in "sociological imagination." I just wanted my loans so I could continue my education.

Well, I guess you accomplished what you set out to do from the beginning, because I give the whole thing up. You and the government can keep your carrot.

There was no rational reason whatsoever for what happened in my case.

All students in the College of Adult and Professional Studies are enrolled as either a PACE student (General Studies or General Business Associates Degrees and generally 0-62 hours) or a Degree Completion Program (DCP) Student with a specific major of study towards a Bachelor's degree. Most of the students in PACE bypass the Associates degree and move directly onto the Bachelor degree, but the student must be identified as PACE or DCP.

I am sorry that you are unhappy with the enrollment arrangement. We hope to begin limited testing in an online enrollment process in the near future, but the students will still be required to visit with an advisor prior to enrollment for the above mentioned reasons.

I will honor your request to be withdrawn and will process your paperwork immediately. Should you wish to be reenrolled in the future, I would be happy to assist you with your advising needs.

Still does not explain why I couldn't add classes like everyone else to ensure my funds.

I was not new. I had already began school and was succeeding. I didn't need or ask for any intervention or disruption of my studies.

The Advisor could have always tried to change my mind later.

Also don't explain why my repeatedly requests to speak to the advisor before the deadline to enroll was ignored.

Also don't explain why I had to change majors when I had passed the summer with an "A" and never asked for any advice about changing anything.

I can understand the Advisor stepping in if I was struggling. I was not.

Also doesn't explain why, when there were only about three choices available to PACE students anyway, I had to call and be forced to accept a major that would have been useless to me--just to get the disbursement.

Which btw, I was never going into debt to take pursue a degree in "sociological imagination." I just wanted my loans so I could continue my education.

Well, I guess you accomplished what you set out to do from the beginning, because I give the whole thing up. You and the government can keep your carrot.

There was no rational reason whatsoever for what happened in my case.

I have not been allowed to enroll even though I have been trying to for nearly a month.

I have repeatedly asked to be allowed to do so. I have contacted everyone I have been told to contact.

Yet, I'm continually asked if I have enrolled.

How can I enroll if I've been locked out of the system and I'm continually being asked again and again to contact someone?

I have already completed the financial Aid process for this year and my loans and disbursement dates have already been set.

I'm being told to complete the process before classes start.

I tried to do that for the early Fall Semester.

I tried to do it again today for the late Semester which I am told is just two weeks away.

I do not understand why this is the first time I'm hearing that I need to do more paperwork.

If you can get it to me today, or before I miss yet another deadline, I'll appreciate it.

I sent a letter to the dean asking that my grievence be addressed. I have recieved no reply. Since my questions have not been answered, I still do not know why I could not enroll in classes before talking to an Advisor. As a result, I do not know if the same thing will not happen again. Also, I have no intentions of going into debt over a degree that was a forced choice, and that I know will be useless to me.

I request that I be withdrawn as a student at this school.

Thomas,

The Dean has received your letter and has been investigating the situation and preparing a response.

In terms of your question regarding why you could not enroll in classes without speaking with an advisor: Every student in the University must speak with an advisor prior to enrollment. During the process the advisor reviews the student selections to confirm all prerequisites are met, that the course is not a duplicate of a transfer course from another institution, and that the proposed schedule meets the academic goals of the student. We also guide the student in selecting the appropriate number of credit hours to maximize their financial aid opportunities. All of these actions are to assist the student in achieving their educational objectives in the most efficient and effective way possible.

All students in the College of Adult and Professional Studies are enrolled as either a PACE student (General Studies or General Business Associates Degrees and generally 0-62 hours) or a Degree Completion Program (DCP) Student with a specific major of study towards a Bachelor's degree. Thomas, we need to do the same thing as we did last semester. Have you enrolled and completed the financial aid process? If so, I can prepare the form we need and e-mail to you today. I will check with those offices to be sure you're ready to finalize. In the future, please use your Friends ID number on your correspondence to us and make sure all enrollment processes are completed before the first day of classes. Your ID number is N00327811 and please feel free to contact me with any questions. Thank you!

I have not been allowed to enroll even though I have been trying to for nearly a month.

I have repeatedly asked to be allowed to do so. I have contacted everyone I have been told to contact.

Yet, I'm continually asked if I have enrolled.

How can I enroll if I've been locked out of the system and I'm continually being asked again and again to contact someone?

I have already completed the financial Aid process for this year and my loans and disbursement dates have already been set.

I'm being told to complete the process before classes start.

I tried to do that for the early Fall Semester.

I tried to do it again today for the late Semester which I am told is just two weeks away.

I do not understand why this is the first time I'm hearing that I need to do more paperwork.

If you can get it to me today, or before I miss yet another deadline, I'll appreciate it.

Now I'm being

I sent a letter to the dean asking that my grievance be addressed. I have recieved no reply.
Since my questions have not been answered, I still do not know why I could not enroll in classes before talking to an Advisor. As a result, I do not know if the same thing will not happen again. Also, I have no intentions of going into debt over a degree that was a forced choice, and that I know will be useless to me.

I request that I be withdrawn as a student at this school.

Thomas,

The Dean has received your letter and has been investigating the situation and preparing a response.

In terms of your question regarding why you could not enroll in classes without speaking with an advisor: Every student in the University must speak with an advisor prior to enrollment. During the process the advisor reviews the student selections to confirm all prerequisites are met, that the course is not a duplicate of a transfer course from another institution, and that the proposed schedule meets the academic goals of the student. We also guide the student in selecting the appropriate number of credit hours to maximize their financial aid opportunities. All of these actions are to assist the student in achieving their educational objectives in the most efficient and effective way possible.

All students in the College of Adult and Professional Studies are enrolled as either a PACE student (General Studies or General Business Associates Degrees and generally 0-62 hours) or a Degree Completion Program (DCP) Student with a specific major of study towards a Bachelor's degree. Most of the students in PACE bypass the Associates degree and move directly onto the Bachelor degree, but the student must be identified as PACE or DCP.

I am sorry that you are unhappy with the enrollment arrangement. We hope to begin limited testing in an online enrollment process in the near future, but the students will still be required to visit with an advisor prior to enrollment for the above mentioned reasons.

I will honor your request to be withdrawn and will process your paperwork immediately. Should you wish to be reenrolled in the future, I would be happy to assist you with your advising needs.

Regards,

Candice Patton

Still does not explain why I couldn't add classes like everyone else to ensure my funds.

I was not new. I had already began school and was succeeding. I didn't need or ask for any intervention or disruption of my studies.

The Advisor could have always tried to change my mind later.

Also don't explain why my repeatedly requests to speak to the advisor before the deadline to enroll was ignored.

Also don't explain why I had to change majors when I had passed the summer with an "A" and never asked for any advice about changing anything.

I can understand the Advisor stepping in if I was struggling. I was not.

Also doesn't explain why, when there were only about three choices available to PACE students anyway, I had to call and be forced to accept a major that would have been useless to me--just to get the disbursement.

Which btw, I was never going into debt to take pursue a degree in "sociological imagination." I just wanted my loans so I could continue my education.

Well, I guess you accomplished what you set out to do from the beginning, because I give the whole thing up. You and the government can keep your carrot.

There was no rational reason whatsoever for what happened in my case.

Thomas Couram

And yes, please withdraw me from this school

Thank you
